- The nominee must have completed one of the following nationally accredited training packages: Certificate II in Resources and Infrastructure Work Preparation, or Certificate II in Civil Construction.
- All finalists should be available to attend the awards night on Friday 9 August 2024.

WHAT THE JUDGES ARE LOOKING FOR

Nominees for the awards will have demonstrated excellence and leadership in their chosen training qualification and attained significant achievements in their field.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION FOR PREPARING A NOMINATION

- Responses should be no longer than 300 words per question. Answers may be provided in another format (e.g. Word or in a specially designed PDF) but the entire nomination form must also be submitted with every entry.
- Each nomination requires a signed letter of endorsement from the nominee's employer. Please do not contact Civil Train for letters of support as the trainers are involved in the judging process.
- Other support materials demonstrating excellence (i.e. references) should be attached and are strongly recommended.
- By submitting a nomination, the nominee and employer are giving CCF QLD permission to use and publish any photographs or video footage provided in the nomination or at the event.
- Please ensure that all personal information provided is accurate, as it will be used on all materials, certificates, media releases, etc.
- All nominations must be submitted via email only to qldevents@ccfqld.com no later than COB 31 May 2024. No physical submissions are required. Nominations not received by the deadline, or sent to the incorrect email address, may not be considered for judging.
